POLITICAL SIGNS

As you may be aware, there are both State laws and local ordinances governing all signs in the Town of York. For the purpose of this public notification, the Code Office will be strictly adhering to State laws with regards to political signs. The laws we will be enforcing are §1913-A. Categorical signs and §682. Political activities.

Information on the sign must include but is not limited to:

- Name of person or entity.
- The date sign is placed along the public right-of-way.
- Physical address of affiliation/or person.
- Contact number.

If you place a sign and are in violation of any of the standards prescribed in either §1913-A or §682, your signs will be removed from public rights-of-way and placed by the wood enclosure behind the Town Hall. You may claim your sign there. If you would like to place it in the right-of-way again, please be sure to follow the guidelines set by the State.

Please reach out to the Code Office via email, YorkCode@yorkmaine.org or phone, 207-363-1002, for any questions.

Regards,

Harry Norton Jr.

Director of Code Enforcement
